

TERMS AND CONDITIONS
SUNDAY STAR TIMES / NEW ZEALAND RACING BOARD “WIN A NISSAN TIIDA” COMPETITION

1. The “Win a Nissan Tiida” competition (the Competition) opens on Sunday 21 December 2008 and closes on Sunday 1 February 2009 (the Competition Period). All entries must be received during the Competition Period.
2. The winning customer will win a 2009 Nissan Tiida 1.8L ST Five Door Hatch Auto (the Prize). There is only one Prize available. The Prize is not transferable or convertible for other alternatives and cannot be exchanged for cash.
3. The Competition matches the number of horses in the selected race at Summer Festival Foxton Races on 1 February 2009 with the names of entrants in this Competition giving each selected entrant a chance to win a Nissan Tiida in the selected race. The person matched with the winner of the race wins the Prize.
4. Board members, Committee members, employees, agents (and agent’s employees) and contractors of the New Zealand Racing Board (NZRB), Sunday Star Times (SST), Nissan, the respective Racing Clubs and the Immediate Families of such persons, are not eligible to enter this Competition or to win prizes. “Immediate Family” of a person means the parents, siblings, children and spouse or partner (whether legal or de facto) of that person.
5. Excluded customers of the NZRB are not eligible to win prizes.
6. To be eligible for entry, customers must be 18 years of age or over. The NZRB reserves the right to require any customer to produce identification and/or proof of age.

Competition Entry

7. There are three ways to enter the Competition. Customers may enter all three ways, but may only be allocated one horse in the selected race.

At any Summer Festival Event

- Enter on-course at any of the Summer Festival Events from 26 December 2008 to 30 January 2009 by cutting out, fully completing and placing the entry form from a SST newspaper or event Racebook in the marked entry box on-course, and;
 - (a) At each Summer Festival Event (see full list below), one name per event will be drawn out at the conclusion of Race 8. Each name drawn at a Summer Festival event will then be entered in the draw for one horse in the selected race at Summer Festival Foxton Races on 1 February 2009 (selected at the NZRB’s discretion). Customers do not have to be on-course to win.
 - (b) One person will be drawn at 8pm from the names of those entered as per paragraph 7(a) on 30 January 2009 live on Trackside and matched with a horse in the selected race at Summer Festival Foxton Races on 1 February 2009.

8. The names drawn and matched with the horses in the selected race will be printed in the SST on 1 February 2009. Full details of the field, drivers, colours and race time will be published in the SST on 1 February 2009.

Competition Winner

9. Of the entrants with horses allocated to their names, the person allocated to the horse that is confirmed as the winner of the race by the official results on the day, wins the Prize.
10. In the case of a dead heat, a random draw will be conducted in the presence of the Racecourse Inspector to determine the winner.

General Terms and Conditions

11. The Kapiti Coast Harness Racing Club will take all practicable steps to ensure that the largest field possible competes in the Win a Nissan Tiida race. However, if a horse is scratched from the race and its position cannot be filled, for whatever reason, then the person allocated to that horse loses their chance to win a car, with no liability of any kind to the SST or NZRB.
12. Customers may enter the Competition as many times as they like by making an eligible entry during the Competition Period, but each person may only be allocated one horse number in the selected race.
13. Customers are responsible for supplying correct contact details. If the NZRB is unable to contact the winning customer by 5pm on 28 February, having made reasonable efforts to do so, the winner's entry will be declared invalid and the prize will be awarded to the second placed entry.
14. The NZRB takes no responsibility for lost, damaged or undelivered entry forms.
15. The NZRB reserves the right to disqualify any customer from tampering with the entry process or attempting to act in a fraudulent or dishonest manner.
16. The winner agrees to be involved in any reasonable promotional activities stipulated by the NZRB, including but not limited to photographs and the publication of the winners name. Entrants agree that by entering this competition, they consent to their name being published in the SST if they are successfully drawn as an entrant whose name will be allocated to a horse in the selected race.

17. If this Competition cannot be run as planned for reasons beyond the control of the NZRB, the NZRB reserves the right at its sole discretion to cancel this Competition. If the race meeting is abandoned, transferred or postponed the competition will run on a selected race at Summer Festival Tauherenikau Races on 6 February 2009.
18. The NZRB is not liable for any direct, indirect, special or consequential loss or damage caused or suffered by the winner in relation to the Prize or this Competition.
19. If the customer agrees to receive information from the NZRB by ticking the box on the entry form, the personal information provided by each customer in entering this Competition will be held in accordance with the Privacy Act 1993. The personal information will be stored on a database and may be used only by the NZRB for the purposes of sending electronic and/or paper based information from NZRB in relation to competitions, newsletters, events, surveys, general updates and other promotional material.
20. The NZRB will not sell, disclose or distribute the personal information provided by customers to any person, organisation, agency or other third party. Customers may request access to their information or may request their information be removed from the database by contacting the New Zealand Racing Board.
